A force of men have been busy the past week distributing the first tank of oil on the streets, and have done a good job of it. Where the streets had been unpaved and graded, the oil was at once absorbed, so that no more tanks travel over them unpaved or discolored at any time. On the east and west sides of the square, however, which had not been paved, the oil is still standing in puddles. These two sections of street should be paved as much as possible in order to give the oil a chance to do its best work, by preventing the ground to absorb it.

HAS PROBABLY MADE A RECORD

The Remington Typewriter Co. has for the past ten or fifteen years had a standing offer to give one of their machines to anyone writing from their copy for fifteen minutes, at the rate of fifty words a minute, with-out a single error. Harry A. Miller, son of Prof. and Mrs. Geo. A. Miller of the Ozark Business College, went to St. Louis Wednesday to take this test in the Remington offices.
Prof. Miller received a message yesterday afternoon from the manager of that office stating that Harry's examination was believed to be perfect, and was being sent to the head office for their confirmation. If this award is made it will be the first machine ever won on this contest in Missouri, and but very few have been won throughout this country.

SWINK-HERALD WEDDING

Conspicuous among the June weddings in Farmington this spring, was the marriage, on June 11th, of Miss Doris Swink, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Swink, and Mr. B. H. Herald, Jr., of St. Louis. The wedding took place at 2:30 on the porch of the Swink home—being decorated for the occasion in dense green foliage. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of green ferns and smilax, making a fitting background for the pretty young bride, who wore a handsome gown of white satin, trimmed in pearl embroidery. She wore a long mist veil fastened to the hair with a small wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a large bridal bouquet of valley lilies and white roses. Her only attendant was the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Peck, who wore a pink costume of georgette and carried a handsome bouquet of pink roses.

The bride's two sisters, Misses Ruth and Alma, played Lohengrin's Wedding March during the ceremony. The flower girls were Patricia Matthews and Betty Swink, nieces of the bride.
The bride was led to the altar on the arm of her father.
Mr. Robert Rosenthal of St. Louis was best man.
Rev. Bailey performed the wedding ceremony.
Mrs. Herald is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Swink. She is an accomplished and well educated young woman, having taught Domestic Science in the school at Esther, and has her B. S. degree in education from the Missouri University. Mr. Herald is a graduate of the Missouri University and spent two years in France in the army in the department of forestry. At present he is in the employ of the Louisville and Nashville R. R. with headquarters in the South. They are spending their honeymoon at Gulfport, Miss., on the Gulf of Mexico.

While there were only members of each family and the most intimate friends of the bride present, the guests numbered about fifty. The out-of-town guests were: Miss Mary Peck of Westboro, Mo.; Miss Bunny Walker of Oak Ridge, Mo.; Mr. Robert Rosenthal, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Herald, Sr., Miss Gertrude Herald, Miss Nell Alexander, Mr. John Alexander, all of St. Louis; relatives of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Matthews of Oran, Miss Lois Westcott of Oran, Mrs. James King of Belgrade, and Miss Bernice McCarthy of St. Louis.

CECIL A. FENDER

Born March 22, 1891, died June 3, 1921, in St. Louis at the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium, of pericarditis of the heart.

He leaves to mourn his departure a devoted wife, who prior to their marriage on May 5, 1910, was Miss Pearl Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cunningham, a daughter, Georgia, mother, Mrs. Savannah Fender, and sister, Mrs. Jas. Slinkard, of Flint, Mich.

About twelve years ago Cecil professed faith in Christ, and it can be said of him he had led an upright and moral life, always ready to help those about him; in fact living unselfishly, more for others than himself.

As a husband and father, he was loyal, loving, kind and true.

Cecil was well known, being an auto mechanic and also possessing a friendly and cheerful disposition. He won the respect and admiration of a host of friends, which was made evident by the large floral offerings sent by friends both before and after his death, also by the interest manifested and by kindness shown during his illness.

Everything that human hands could do was done to relieve his suffering. Although often blue and discouraged he would always say "I'm better" when asked how he was feeling. Cecil was the sunshine of the home, good-natured and always looking forward to better things. However hard to give him up, the one who doeth all things well has said, it is enough, come up higher; "Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many." He was thus called home where there's no more sickness, sorrow or death, but peace eternal, and we can only live so that again we shall meet him.

We have lost our darling Cecil. He has bid us all adieu; He has gone to live in heaven, And his form is lost from view. Oh, how dear one, how we loved him, Oh, how hard to give him up, But an angel came down for him, And removed him from our flock. It is said that one we cherish Should be taken from our home; But the joys that do not perish Live in memory all along. Farewell, dear Cecil, sweet be thy rest; Farewell till in some happy place we shall behold your face again.

"Tis ours to miss thee all our years, And tender memories keep, and with aching hearts to wait and silently weep.

A FRIEND.

ST. LOUIS LIVE STOCK MARKET
June 14, 1921.
Today's Receipts
Cattle 3,000
Calves 2,500
Hogs 13,500
Sheep 7,000
CATTLE—Receipts fell below expectations and the market as a result was well sustained at the previous week's close, particularly the good fat stock clearing fairly readily at the prices. Top veal brought $9.50. Beef steers, $6.50 to $9; yearling butcher cattle, $5.50 to $9; beef cows, $4 to $6.50; canners and cutters, $2.50 to $3; bulls, $3 to $4; stockers and feeders, $5 to $7; stock cows and heifers, $3.50 to $5.50.
HOGS—Receipts in this department were also lighter than the corresponding time of last week and less in volume than anticipated, but regardless of the decrease the trade lacked vigor due to the fact that the principal demand was chiefly through packer sources. At the opening of the trade today the market was 10c lower than yesterday or the close of the previous week, extreme top $8. Strong weight pigs, however, sold steady, but the lighter weight kinds weighing 110 pounds down found extremely limited demand, values off 25c per cwt.
Bulk of the good 160 to 250 pound hogs selling at $7.80 to $7.95. Pigs, $7 to $7.75; packers, $6.75.
SHEEP—Due to unfavorable advices from other markets and also the fact that receipts were plentiful the lamb situation today marked weakness and the trade averaged fully 75 cents per cwt. lower than the best time last week. Fat sheep supply limited, and the demand was sufficient to maintain this end of the trade fully steady.
Shipper, buyer pays $11.25 for prime lambs. Packers buying choice kinds at $12.75 to $13; medium lambs ranging from $8 to $10; culls, $4.50; light weight lambs, $2 to $3; fat sheep, $4; heavies, $3; choppers and bucks, $2; canners, 50c to 75c per cwt.

National Livestock Com. Co.
